Customized ventilation solutions just for you...

With Feit, you can be absolutely sure to receive bespoke ventilation ducts expertly tailored to meet all your specific nautical needs. We work very closely with your technical offices to carefully design and produce high-quality ducts in stainless steel or polypropylene, perfect for managing air flow both in and out of the engine room. Our custom solutions are designed to optimize air flow, significantly reduce pressure losses, and effectively minimize space, ensuring efficient integration with fans, dampers, and separators.
